SEEKING SLAYER OF LITTLE SON OF
HONOLULU BANKER

Ten - Year - Old Lad is Strangled to Death by His Kidnapers

Honolulu, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Honolulu met the horror of its first major crime today with police, the military and scores of volunteers organized into working units to hunt down the kidnaper and slayer of Gill Jamieson, 10-year-old son of Frederick W. Jamieson, banker.

The body of the boy, who was kidnaped from school Tuesday, was found yesterday on the banks of the Alawai Canal, near the fashionable Royal Hawaiian Hotel. Physicians said he had been strangled to death. Complicating search for the slayer today was the threat of mob violence which followed indignation meetings held throughout the city last night. Hints that a vigilance committee was being formed at one meeting last night followed barring of newspapermen.

Expect $20,000 Reward.
The Chamber of Commerce reward fund had reached $10,000 last night, and a total fund of $20,000 for arrest of the kidnappers was expected before tonight.

The boy's neck bore the imprint of five fingers, many bruises covered his body, and there were rope burns on his wrist and ankles. Police Surgeon C. Faus said an autopsy indicated the boy had put up a terrific struggle with his abductor.

Physicians believed the boy had been killed Tuesday night, a few hours after he had been kidnaped, and possibly within a few minutes of the time his frenzied father had handed over $4,000 to a man, who promised the safe return of the lad. First indication of the kidnapping came Tuesday afternoon when the father received a letter demanding $10,000 ransom for his son, with threats of death if the money was not delivered.

The boy was taken from his school shortly before by a man who told his teacher that Mrs. Jamieson had been injured and wished her son to return home at once.

Array of Attorneys in Disturbance Case

An array of four Dixon attorneys was present in police court this morning when Mrs. Maud Badie appeared before Justice J. O. Shaull at 10 o'clock to be tried for the offense of disturbing the peace by alleged loud and infamous language directed at certain officers of the Dixon Chapter, O. E. S., a colored organization. Attorney Shaull in the capital city of justice presided at the trial. Attorney Martin Gannon appeared in the defense of Mrs. Badie, City Attorney E. E. Wingert acted as the prosecutor and Attorney H. A. Brooks sat in judgment, assisting in the prosecution.

After the case had been called, Attorney Gannon requested that a jury be summoned to hear the evidence and pass upon the case. Officer Harry Jones was named to select the jury of six men. The remainder of the morning was taken up in the hearing of testimony of members of the Dixon chapter and at noon the case was recessed until 1:30 when defense witnesses were to testify.

Fear for Safety of Four Canadian Fliers

Winnipeg, Man., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Grave fears were felt today by Squadron Leader E. A. Godfrey of the Royal Canadian Air Force and three companions missing since Sunday on a seaplane flight from Vancouver to Ottawa.

They had successfully covered the most dangerous part of their trip over the Canadian Rockies and were following the northern water route toward Hudson Bay, with frequent lakes and many rivers in which to land. They left the town of Peach River in northern Alberta Sunday bound for Fort Smith, and have been unreported since. There have been rumors that the plane was forced down and wrecked in Peace River, the men escaping unhurt, but they remain unverified.

Collinsville Man is Shot by Unknown Men

Stanton, Ill., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Prefacing their fire with a shouting greeting, "Hello Tony," unknown assailants in an automobile shot and fatally wounded Anton Senese of Collinsville, last night. He was shot five or more times, one of the bullets entering his neck.

Joe Angelo, 18, who was in Senese's machine, told authorities of the shooting, which took place near here, Senese in a hospital at Litchfield, was unable to make a statement, but said "a man shot me, and his name is Green."

Crew of Freight
Train Gave Alarm
That Saved Genoa

Rockford, Ill., Sept. 21.—Peaceful slumbers of Genoa citizens were disturbed this morning by the violent shrieking of a freight train's whistle, arousing the village to find itself threatened by flames.

The crew of the train as it passed through Genoa saw fire leaping from the top of a garage building and resorted to the shrill blasts of the whistle to sound a warning. It worked, and Robert Gallagher, owner of the garage, who slept on the second floor of the building, awoke to find himself virtually surrounded by flames.

He escaped and turned in the fire alarm calling out the department just in time to check the blaze after it had spread to a junk yard next door. Damage was estimated at $7,000 and Gallagher said if he had slept a minute or two longer he likely would never have awakened.

The fire was gaining rapidly and the Genoa department turned in an emergency call to the Sycamore department which hastened to aid the village.

BOY WILL FACE
ACCUSED MAN IN CRIMINAL COURT

Kidnaped Lad Will Try to Identify Abductor
Late Today

Chicago, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Angelo Pettiti submitted his chin to the ministrations of a barber today that ten-year-old Billy Ranieri might more readily recognize the man he thinks kidnaped him two weeks ago. "It looks like the man who grabbed me," Billy said last night when shown a photograph of the bulky Italian who has been held as one of the band of kidnapers and extortionists who demanded $60,000 for the boy's safe return to the family.

So today Billy and his uncle, Nicholas Ranieri, were to try to identify Pettiti when he is arraigned before Judge Frank Comerford in criminal court. The State's Attorney announced they would demand that Pettiti be held to the grand jury on a kidnaping charge, punishable in Illinois by death.

Guard for Uncle.

The boy's uncle was guarded through the night at a downtown hotel after he told the police of negotiations with Pettiti for the payment of a ransom for Billy's release. He feared assassination because of his revelations.

Ranieri declared he recognized Pettiti's voice over the telephone when the Italian called to demand money, and said that twice he went to Pettiti's home to arrange the ransom. The first time Pettiti was absent and on his second visit he went without the cash and was told to bring $5,000 the next day. Meanwhile Pettiti was arrested and his dickerings ended.

Although police have several times expressed confidence that they knew the farm where the boy was kept prisoner ten days, every sortie into the country near Chicago has failed to locate the hiding place.

High School Pupils
Stage Strike Today

Chicago, Sept. 21.—(AP)—About 200 of the 2,200 pupils of Fenger high school on the south side who went on strike today because several Negro pupils were transferred to the school, returned to their classes before noon after the police had been called to restore order and school officials said they anticipated no further trouble.

Several Negro girls desiring to take a household arts course were transferred to the school from another high school nearby and the white students protested against the transfer. Today students coming to school were met by groups of incensed companions who urged them to remain away from classes.

School officials charged that the movement was led by a group of neighboring youths who did not attend the school. The police were called to disperse this group while students shouted from class room windows.

The principal of the school said that only a few students were absent and that these were expected back during the day.

Snake Root Weed
Found in Jackson

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Warning that the poisonous white snake root weed is apparently flourishing in Jackson County was issued today by S. J. Stannard, state Director of Agriculture, to farmers and milk customers in the vicinity of Murphysboro.

Investigating the death of several calves near the city, Stannard's agents found the weed growing in pastures, and a post mortem examination of one of the dead cattle showed signs of death by the weed. Rabies of the deaths.

At first had been thought the cause of the deaths was the snake root weed. Snake root is sometimes fatal to cattle and milk from poisoned cows causes "milk sick," a very serious ailment, Stannard said.

SHERIFF MILLER ASKED TO FIND YOUNG GIRL AND MAN WITH WHOM SHE LEFT HOME

Theresa Jones, 15, is Said to Have Eloped
With Man, Aged 28

Sheriff Ward Miller late yesterday was requested to assist in locating a pair who yesterday morning cleverly planned and carried out an elopement to the complete surprise of their friends and relatives. Miss Theresa Jones, aged 15, and Charles Thomas, also known as Thompson, both employed by the Brown Shoe Company, were the eloping pair according to the complaint registered with the sheriff.

Miss Jones is the ward of J. A. Marsh, 806 Broadway street, who was appointed her administrator by a court at Fairbault, Minn., some time ago. When the Marsh family came to Dixon, Miss Jones accompanied them. Thomas, who is said to have been divorced from his wife at Fairbault about six weeks ago, also came to Dixon and secured employment. He is described as being 28 years of age, weighing about 125 pounds and being of dark complexion, wearing glasses.

Took Adoption Papers.

According to the report to Sheriff Miller, the drawer of a library table at the Marsh home was pried open and the papers from the Fairbault court were taken. The young woman then took one of her dresses and hid it in the garage. Yesterday morning she left home for her duties at the Brown Shoe Company plant as usual, in company with Thomas who was a boarder at the Marsh home. The investigation conducted by the sheriff disclosed the fact that both of the parties worked until about 9:30 yesterday morning when they left their employment, secured their checks and nothing has been heard from either of them since.

Miss Jones was past 15 years of age and had made her home in his city for the past four months. She was described as weighing about 90 pounds and was light. The couple doubtless are travelling in a Chevrolet coupe which bears Minnesota license plates. Sheriff Miller telephoned to surrounding county seats but was unable to find where the couple secured a marriage license.

SAY AL CAPONE
SHOT HIMSELF
IN BOTH LEGS

Accidentally Wounded
When Own Pistol
Discharged

Chicago, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Reports that "Scarface Al" Capone, notorious Chicago gangster, who takes elaborate precautions to see that he is not shot by others, had accidentally shot himself were unverified today because those who came in contact with the wounded man were not acquainted with the features of the gangster.

Capone, grinning policeman said, started out to play golf last week and when clambering into an automobile accidentally discharged a pistol he carried in his hip pocket, inflicting flesh wounds in both his legs.

At a Hammond hospital officials said that a man suffering from pistol wounds in his legs was brought to the hospital Sunday for treatment and was discharged last night. The man, hospital attendants said, was accompanied by two burly companions who remained with him while there, but gave the name of Robert Geary.

Dr. B. W. Chidlaw of Hammond who treated the wounded man said he did not know Capone but described a scar on the wounded man's face similar to that carried by Capone.

A reporter said he had found Capone in a hotel last night and Capone denied having shot himself and did a dance to prove it.

Ask Alton Railroad to Unionize Crafts

Chicago, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Fourteen railroad labor unions have appealed to the Chicago & Alton Railroad to permit its shop workers to join the Federated Ship Crafts Union, and the question is to be submitted to Thomas Bickers, Federal Mediator, for consideration before further action by the unions.

The controversy originated during the railway strike of 1922, since when the shop crafts of the Alton line have operated on a non-union basis.

McHenry Co. Resort
Owners are Sought

Chicago, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Warrants for 37 McHenry county resort proprietors and alleged dealers in liquor were issued last night as part of a special grand jury's attempt to rid the county of gambling and liquor.

The home of Cole Peterson of Woodstock, Ill., McHenry county seat, was bombed Wednesday night by men police believe to be members of the gang opposing Peterson's work as leader of a citizens' committee supporting the cleanup. An attempt was made the same night to batter down the door of the jail at Harvard, in the same county.

Italian Institute

Rome, Sept. 21.—(AP)—A bomb exploded today against the wall of the Cardinal Ferrari Institute at Milan says a special dispatch to L'Avanti.

Leaves $1 Each to Sporting's entire estate is to be divided between two brothers, Fred and Henry. His other brother and sisters, the will states, "have been dishonest and unfair with me."

PRESIDENT AND
FIRST LADY TO RETURN TONIGHT

Will End Their Visit in Native State of
Mr. Coolidge

Plymouth, Vt., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Back for a few hours among his own people in his native village, President Coolidge forsook the duties of his office this morning to revert temporarily to a simple Vermont landholder.

He and Mrs. Coolidge, however, did not forget among their visits to the farm and the calls of neighbors to journey to the graves of the President's father and of young Calvin, who died four years ago.

Up early after their first night in the family homestead in over two years, Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge went into the open immediately. Mrs. Coolidge struck up Messer Hill, her favorite walk, to see the autumn tints in the woods. The Chief Executive was inspected the nearby cheese factory in which he has an interest and looked over his farm. He was pleased to find both flourishing. The former, he was told, did about $300 business a day. At the farm the new sugar house and the new silo were great additions, while the 200 gallons of maple syrup in store and the plentiful orchard products spoke well for its prosperity.

Meeting again at their home, Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge gathered the flowers they had brought with them yesterday and went to the cemetery.

Plymouth, Vt., Sept. 21.—(AP)—After a night spent at the old family home President Coolidge looked forward this morning to a brief interval of quiet and comparative retirement among the surroundings of his native hills before resuming, this afternoon, his return trip to Washington.

Friends and relatives in Plymouth had been told that they would be welcome to call upon Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge this morning if they so desired.

Arrangements have been made for the Chief Executive and Mrs. Coolidge to visit early in the day the village cemetery and there to decorate the Coolidge family grave.

When the Coolidges reached here last evening it was too late to meet friends although the whole hamlet was standing at the cross roads to greet them.

The President and Mrs. Coolidge soon retired for the night with the intention of rising early to inspect as much as possible of the farm and countryside. The President said he wanted to discover if the crops had turned out favorable.

This morning's ceremony at the cemetery followed a similar one at Burlington where Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge interrupted for an hour their trip through Vermont to decorate the tomb of Captain Andrew I. Goodhue, Mrs. Coolidge's father.

Warden Klester responded and found the Ohio party in possession of several more than the legal daily bag of 15 birds and ordered him to report before Justice Gehant at 11 o'clock this morning. Spooner was said to have been hunting on the Downs farm which is posted and closed to hunters.

The vote on the resolution was followed by the singing of "The Sidewalks of New York."

Senator Brookhart told the Union that three farm leaders—George N. Perk of Moline, Ill., chairman of the "committee of 22," a farm organization; Frank W. Murphy of Minnesota, and William Hirth of Missouri, chairman of the Corn Belt Federation of Farm Organizations—had "double-crossed" the farmers by swaying their support to Gov. BANDITS HELD IN
WIS. IDENTIFIED
AS JOLIET SLAYERS

Will be Brought Back to Illinois to Answer
Charges

Mauston, Wis., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Two bandit suspects, lying seriously wounded in the hospital here were identified this morning by three Joliet men as members of the gang which slew John Kakara, Joliet saloon-keeper last week. The men were in the saloon at the time of the shooting.

John M. Jenco, Joliet, Ill., member of the Illinois legislature, and brother-in-law of Kakara, said the two suspects two weeks ago took him for a ride and stole his automobile. The three men who identified the bandits were in the saloon at the time of the slaying.

Identified Promptly.

Jenco, the three men and the Sheriff of Joliet, walked into the Mauston hospital at about 9:45 this morning; took one look at the men, Nick Hartman and John Driem, and told Sheriff Layl Wright they were the men.

The two men were shot down and captured in a woods near New Lisbon, two days ago after a search that started when a pair resembling them held up a filling station at Baraboo, Wis., and beat the proprietor, then fled.

Since that time a search has been carried on with the woods of Juneau and Sauk counties being scoured. Both the men are in a serious condition.

Denied Shooting.

The suspects have denied any connection with the slaying and insist they were not in Joliet when it took place.

Sheriff A. E. Markgraf of Joliet will leave here this afternoon for Illinois to obtain extradition papers for the men. A charge of murder is to be pressed, he said.

The men, giving their names as Jack Hartman and Andrew Kenderes, have indicated, according to Sheriff Markgraf, that they will not fight extradition.

Rep. Jenco made several attempts to gain admittance to the hospital last night but was unable to gain entrance. This morning, he went there with Sheriff Wright.

Jenco identified scraps of a letter picked up in trailing the pair as one written to him.

Wall Street Close

New York, Sept. 21—(AP)—Stock

prices displayed a steady undertone at the opening of today's market.

Brunswick-Balke Colender opened

2 1/2 points higher at 62 1/2. Duplicating the year's high, and the first sale of Lehn &amp; Pink was a block of 5000 shares at 62 1/2, up 2 points, and a new high record. Initial gains of a point or more were recorded by General Railway Signal, International

Combustion and International Business Machines. Montgomery-Ward opened a point lower.

General Motors opened with a block of 30,000 shares at the "split price" of 21 3/4 to 21 1/2, an extreme gain of 2 1/2 points and a new high record.

Although some irregularity developed in the early trading the market did not appear to be alarmed over the increase of $85,000,000 in federal reserve brokers' loans, and the 9 per cent call money rate late yesterday closed at 10 1/2. The market was in large volume around 214. Paskard moved up 2 points to a new top at 92 1/2, and a good demand was noted for Brockway, Hudson Motors and Spicer Manufacturing. The sale of a block of 16,500 shares of Superior Oil at 7 1/2, a new top, and the resumption of the upward movement in Atlantic

Refining featured the oil group.

Brooklyn Union Gas led the public utilities by quickly climbing 3 points to a new top of 17 1/2.

Crescent Steel Car fell back 2 and

American Zinc, Gold Dust, Fox Film,

Stanley Co. of America, New York

Central and Wright Aeronautical yielded a point or more.

Foreign exchanges opened steady with sterling cables again quoted around 4.85, the year's low price.

About the only group of stocks that moved consistently in the forenoon were the railroads, and they generally sold a point or so under the preceding close. Elsewhere it seemed to be nip and tuck race between opposing speculative factions.

Coppers, oils and several of the motor accessories responded to confident absorption.

Of the way of losses a slump of 9 points in Wright Aero stood out, while recessions of 2 points or more were by no means uncommon among other stocks. The renewal rate for call loans was lifted to 8 per cent.

The closing was strong. Enthusiastic buying of General Motors which went above 218 and independent issues like Hupp and Hudson which sold at 75 1/2 to 85 1/2, respectively, brought about a strong rebound in many shares that were under pressure earlier, particularly the air-

Women Told to Prepare to Argue Liquor Question

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 21—(AP)—Club women affiliated with the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs, which numbers 125,000 members, have been urged not only to be "dry" but to prepare themselves to argue with the "wets" or "nullificationists," in a report adopted at the Federation's State Board meeting here.

Mrs. Roy F. Hoadley of Yorkville, chairman of the American Citizenship Committee, read the report. It urged that all club women be able to answer the arguments for nullification of the 18th amendment. He report further urged that club women turn out a big vote on November 6, and that county Federation of Women's Clubs throughout the state have representatives at all the polls possible.

This report also urged that club women sponsor open forums throughout the state between this time and election, and that club women interest themselves intimately in citizenship affairs.

Both Mrs. J. Marc Fowler, State President, and Mrs. W. W. Seymour, State Director, addressed the board on phases of the Well Equipped Home Campaign and Exposition to culminate at the 34th annual convention in Chicago May 13 to 19 next year.

Polo Girl Is Bride Dixon Man

The home of Rev. S. A. Cook of Rockford was the scene of a pretty but quiet wedding Thursday, September 6, when Miss Evelyn Miller of Polo became the bride of Russell Jones of Dixon. Rev. Cook, a former pastor of the Christian church of Polo performed the ceremony at 2:30. The newlyweds were unattended.

The bride's gown was pale pink embroidered with georgette. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for an extended tour of the East where they will visit relatives and places of historical interest, including Washington, D. C., Maryland, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and New York, returning by way of Niagara Falls.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mahlon C. Miller of Polo. She is a graduate of the Polo high school and also attended Mount Morris College. For the last several years she has been a successful teacher in schools near Polo, having taught the Barclay school for the past three years.

The bridegroom is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jones of near Dixon and is well known in this community. He is at present engaged in farming in partnership with his father.

The young couple will be at home to their friends after October 5, on his father's farm north of Dixon.

MOTORED TO CHICAGO AND VISITED IN DIXON

Mr. and Mrs. William Sowles and Mr. and Mrs. William Sowles Jr. and Miss Phillips, all of Sterling motored to Chicago Wednesday morning on business. Returning Mr. and Mrs. Sowles Jr. spent the evening with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Reilly and family.

Now that house cleaning time has arrived you may find articles of furniture you wish to dispose of. A 50c ad in the Dixon Telegraph is bound to bring results.

MENU for the FAMILY

BREAKFAST—Grapes, cereal, cream, calves' liver with bacon, potatoes hashed in milk, half and half muffins, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Pressed corned beef, toasted jelly sandwiches, cocoa.

Dinner—Veal stew, corn on the cob, sliced tomatoes, pumpkin pie.

The following rule for pumpkin pie insures a crisp, unsoaked undercrust. The pie is not the traditional "early American" New England variety but is very good.

Pumpkin Pie
One cup sifted pumpkin, 1/2 cup sugar, 2 eggs, 2 cups rich milk, 1 tablespoon flour, 1 teaspoon ginger, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons powdered sugar.
Save white of one egg for meringue. Beat remaining whole egg and yolk until very light. Beat in sugar, flour and spices sifted together. Gradually add milk, beating constantly. Beat in melted butter and stir in pumpkin. Cook over a low fire, stirring constantly until thick and smooth. Turn into a baked and cooled pie shell. Beat white of egg until stiff and dry. Beat on a platter and use a wire whisk. Beat in powdered sugar and spread roughly over pumpkin mixture. Bake eight minutes in a moderate oven to cook and color the meringue. Serve cold.

Am. Legion Auxiliary Convention in San Antonio Oct. 8-12

San Antonio, Tex., Sept. 21—Elaborate plans for the entertainment of the distinguished guests to the American Legion Auxiliary Convention in San Antonio, October 8 to 12 are in progress of completion by the Auxiliary local executive committee, of which Mrs. Walton D. Hood of San Antonio is chairman.

Lady Edward Spencer Churchill of England, Lady Drummond of Canada, and Mrs. Alfred J. Broese van Groenou of the Netherlands, general of the Daughters of the American Revolution, have accepted the invitation of the Auxiliary to attend as distinguished guests. Another titled Englishwoman who will be entertained is Lady Allenby. She will accompany her husband, Field Marshal Lord Allenby, who will be among the distinguished guests at the American Legion convention.

Visitors to the convention will be entertained by the San Antonio chapters of various patriotic organizations in a joint reception by the Overseas Service League in a special luncheon, by the Federated Clubs, in addition to being received at a tea, to be attended by a thousand guests, at the San Antonio Country Club, and a "garden tea" in the courtyard of the Alamo, the hostesses being the Daughters of the Republic of Texas. The last two named will be the largest and most elaborate of the locally managed entertainments.

Dinners, breakfasts and luncheons which usually form part of every Auxiliary convention, under national direction, include the Aloha breakfast, the past presidents' parley luncheon, the Eight and Forty dinner, the department secretaries dinner, the rehabilitation and child welfare breakfast, the states' dinner, and the Fidae luncheon. Of these the "Fidae" dinner will be the most elaborate with its guest list of 1,000. Interest centers in the winners of the trophies for the most beautifully and appropriately decorated state table. There will be 52 of these especially decorated tables.

Mrs. Irene McIntyre Walbridge, national president of the American Legion Auxiliary, will preside at the states' dinner and introduce the distinguished guests who will be seated at the national table.

Charming Party For Miss Frye

Last evening Miss Loretta Bolt was hostess to a company of friends at a 5 o'clock bridge dinner honoring Miss Lucille Frye, whose approaching marriage to Allen Harnish of Oregon has been announced. There were guests for two tables and a delicious four course dinner was served. Pink and green formed the charming color combination in the decorations. Pink snap dragons and pink cosmos were the flowers on the tables and in the rooms, supplemented by other blossoms throughout the home. Pink and green favors and place cards were most attractive.

Miss Myrtle Swartz was awarded the favor for high honors at bridge; and Miss Dorothy Palmer received the second favor.

After bridge those present joined in holding a miscellaneous shower for Miss Frye, many nice gifts being presented to her with the best wishes of her many friends for her future happiness.

Miss Wallace Gave Birthday Dinner

Miss Hazel Wallace entertained seven girls at a birthday dinner at the Mainberg Tavern in Oregon last evening. The color scheme was pink and white. The dinner was followed by a theater party at the Dixon theater which concluded a most delightful evening.

The WOMAN'S DAY by ALLENE SUMNER

Perhaps, you, too, saw that picture in the paper the other day of Texas Guinan, night club hostess par excellence, posed with her Ma Guinan and her Pa Guinan. No picture in months has so intrigued me. I studied it for long minutes. There was Tex with her yards and yards of pearls—real ones, too, they say, for being a night club wisecracker is quite profitable employment. There was her chic Paris hat, her elegant hose and shoes and hand bag and gloves and a complete air of hard-boiled sophistication.

AND THERE WAS MA!
And there was Ma Guinan with her old-fashioned cotton umbrella, the kind they used to call "a bumber-shoot," parked squarely in front of her dowdy old-fashioned body. There was Ma with her spectacles and her straight hair parted exactly in the middle, with her obviously corseted figure outlined by a tight belt at an old-fashioned normal waistline. There was Ma with square-toed shoes, her skirts concealing all but the tips of her shoes, her cotton-gloved hands, and there was Ma with an utter air of bewilderment as to what the picture taking was all about, anyway, and just what this swan was which she had hatched from a supposed plain duck egg.

Ma Guinan spoke of many a hard day's work at the wash tub and around the kitchen stove. She spoke of home baked loaves of fragrant bread, of hundreds of little dresses washed and ironed, of cakes and pies baked for church suppers, or such simple pleasures as an occasional movie or picnic or family reunion.

PA, TOO!
Ma Guinan was fairly matched in Pa Guinan, the perfect "hick," a bewildered life-buffed little man in slouchy too-big clothes who seemed to wonder what all the shooting was for.

At first glance one almost accused wise-cracker Tex of fixing up her parents as props for her own setting, or as a swell publicity joke. The contrast was too perfect.

PROBABLY SO!
But there is really little doubt that Ma and Pa were just as they photographed. They are not the first ugly duckling parents to hatch out swan offspring. Or do we mean they are not the first swan parents to hatch out ugly duckling progeny? As a matter of fact, it seems almost invariably true that the Tex Guinans of earth always come from the humblest, most ordinary backgrounds.

OLD STORY!
Is it the old story of the struggle to escape environment and become "something different"? The yearnings of the little girl who had to wear made-over dresses to have pearls and brocade gowns that would stand alone? Yearning so fierce and hot that they crystallized in the struggle to attain them? Is it the old story of so hating the commonplace that the pendulum swings the other way and one becomes bizarre, exotic, notorious?

Missionary Society Held Meeting

The Women's Missionary Society of Bethel United Evangelical church held a pleasant meeting yesterday with Mrs. John Nelson, assisted by Mrs. James Rogers, with a good attendance of members. The meeting opened with the hymn, "Tell Me the Story of Jesus." Mrs. W. T. Greig read from first Thessalonians, and prayers were offered by several members.

Mrs. S. B. Quincer gave an interesting leaflet, "The Influence of the Christian Home." A hymn was then followed by the topic by Mrs. John Nelson, "Our Brothers in Red," and a leaflet by Mrs. Harrison Wadsworth, both very interesting.

A prayer was offered by Rev. S. B. Quincer and then the business session was held, and afterward a social hour was enjoyed and the hostesses, Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Rogers served tempting refreshments.

September Meeting Women's Committee I. N. U. Co. a Success

The September meeting of the Women's Committee of the Illinois Northern Utilities Company was a huge success. It was held on Monday evening, Sept. 17, in the Assembly Room of the Dixon office, and was designated as Mother's night, each employee bringing her mother or other guest. Forty-eight attended, twenty-eight of whom were guests of the employees. The meeting was aimed to bring about an understanding of the work of the Committee and to promote friendship and interest.

Miss Edna J. Decker opened the meeting with a few words of greeting after which she explained the purpose and scope of the Women's Committee.

Vice President E. D. Alexander and W. D. Hart, General Contract Agent, were present and each discussed the subject "What do employee meetings have to do with a public utility?" Roll call found all of the Dixon employees present. Each responded with an item of interest about the Company or the industry.

What the Customer thinks of the Company was the subject of a talk ably presented by Miss Helen Nagle, Cashier.

A sketch explaining the value of Personal Service work was enacted by Miss Marcelle Bremer and Miss Mila Wolkne. This was a one act play-let arranged for the Women's Committee by Mr. A. B. Whitcomb in which he described his experiences as the Company's Personal Service Representative. Miss Wolkne took the part of the housewife whose gas range needed adjusting and Miss Bremer, the part of the Company's representative who makes repairs and offers advice in the practical and proper uses of gas.

Miss Lucile Stauffer entertained with two numbers—"Duet in A Flat" and "Ten Electrical Commandments." The first was a dialogue between husband and wife in which the wife convinces her better-half that an electric vacuum cleaner, washing and ironing machine, refrigerator, and dishwasher are as necessary in the home as electric typewriters, Milking, sorting, and dictating machines in an office. Both numbers were delightfully presented by Miss Stauffer.

Miss Mae Howard of the Virginia Public Service Company, Charlottesville, was a guest of the Committee. Miss Howard was recently appointed to direct the work of the Women's Committee of the National Electric Power Company of New York. Her charming personality won for her many friends during her brief visit in Dixon. She recounted, in a delightful manner, her impressions of the National Women's Committee meeting held in Chicago recently.

Robert Hallenberg, Director of Public Relations, emphasized the necessity of utility employees being well informed about their business.

The meeting followed a delicious chicken supper which was served at 6 o'clock. The tables were decorated with marigolds and yellow tapers. The nut cups and place cards carried out the color scheme.

The evening was brought to a happy close with cards. At bridge, Miss Edith Ayers was awarded the prize for high score, and Miss Helen Finney was a close second. Mrs. Maryann Gonerman was awarded the consolation prize. At rumey, Miss Frances Witzke held the lucky score. The tallies were attached to colorful bracelets of autumn leaf design. Miss Florence Stones and Miss Edna Decker were responsible for the very successful meeting and party.

CHAPTER AC, TO ENTERTAIN TUESDAY

Chapter AC, Illinois P. E. O., will on next Tuesday entertain the P. E. O. Chapters from Rockford, Freeport, Genoa, Sterling, Mendota, Rock Falls and Savanna.

Luncheon will be served at the Presbyterian church and it is a meeting anticipated with much pleasure.

WERE GUESTS AT KREGER HOME

Miss Marie Blackburn, Milan Rinehart, and Walter Wernick were guests Sunday at the Otto Kreger home in this city.

Now that house cleaning time has arrived you may find articles of furniture you wish to dispose of. A 50c ad in the Dixon Telegraph is bound to bring results.

POINTERS FOR PARENTS

PARENTAL LOVE

By Mrs. Agnes Lyne

Above all things a child must be sure that his parents love him. On this depends his drive toward achievement and his sense of security in a complicated world.

The true function of parental love is to act as an underlying condition and a guiding force in the development of the child. It is easy to indulge in parental love; it is not so easy to love the child wisely and well.

Parents love their children in different ways and some ways are much better than others. I have in mind a certain father who adores his little boy. He is proud of David's fine physique, worships his smile and thinks him the most intelligent child in the world. He talks about him a good deal and kisses and embraces him impulsively. His demonstration of affection is in the mood of passionate adoration.

Yet when David cries and interrupts his father's work the expression of irritation and annoyance are no more restrained than was the expression of love. On these occasions his father says that children are a nuisance and not worth the trouble and responsibility they entail.

Although David is too young to understand his father's words, he is not too young to feel his moods. Later on when he comes to his father to tell him something in confidence he will be turned away because he has chosen the wrong moment. Another day he will want to enlist his father in his games only to find that although Dad embraces him and calls him pet names he is bored at the idea of really being friends with him.

Little by little he and his father will be alienated from each other. To David love of any sort will be something not to be counted on, a matter of emotional scenes which have little in common with steady affection and intimate comradeship.

Parental love which treats the child as a possession or plaything is simply a form of selfishness. More than any other kind of love that of parents for their children should be civilized. The child should experience his parents' love as a sort of even warmth that suffuses his days with a sense of well being. He should know it as patience, tenderness and understanding. He should feel it as a kind of faith that he will do what is right and that he will achieve success in whatever he undertakes.

Stitch and Chatter Club in Meeting

The Stitch and Chatter club held one of its pleasant meetings yesterday with Mrs. Everett Siden of Fargo avenue. There was a good attendance of members and all spent a happy afternoon in sewing or fancy work, and later tempting refreshments were served. The dining table was graced by a lovely bouquet of yellow dahlias.

The next meeting of the club will be held in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Roy Randall.

Bridge Made Easy

SIX ALIBI CONVENTIONS—If you always followed the admonition to lead to weakness, it would mean that third hand should always lead the weakest suit in the dummy. Assume that you are east and the dummy holds:

Spades—X X X; hearts—X; diamonds—Q 6 4; clubs—K X X X X.
The declaration is in a suit. Assume that on the first round west led a small club and you captured it with the club ace. What card would you return? Playing by rote, you would return a heart for it is the weakest suit in the dummy. In all probability, however, the declarer would capture it with the spade ace and he would then be in a position to ruff losing hearts in the dummy.

Instead of removing the singleton heart from the dummy, you should lead a trump and thus remove a danger spot from the table. There is a possibility that the declarer will try to finesse the trump and west, your partner, may win it. Then he would lead clubs and you would be in a position to trump.

By ignoring the convention in this instance, you make the most of your combined hands.

Interesting Program Is Scheduled for Woman's Club Year

The Dixon Woman's Club program committee met last Monday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. L. N. Deutsch, and arranged the club calendar for the ensuing club year, which will begin, Oct. 13th.

The members of the committee have been busy during the summer months gathering material for programs and have succeeded in booking talent of which the club may well be proud.

Among the speakers and artists who will appear before the club are: Alice Einfield, reader of Davenport, who will give the opening program; Dr. Preston Bradley of Chicago, well known public orator and radio speaker, who will give an even lecture on Friday, Oct. 26th; President Maurer of Beloit College, who comes highly recommended as a brilliant, interesting speaker; John P. Nolf, well known artist of Chicago, who has many friends in and around Dixon; Lucy D. Ball, head of the Geneva School for Girls, a woman of very pleasing personality, with a talk on the training of girls in the State School which is certain to prove interesting and instructive.

Miss Marion O'Connor of the Columbia School of Music, Chicago, who gave a recital before the club last year, giving such general satisfaction that she has been booked for a recital engagement, with a complete change of program; Helen B. Paulson of Chicago, an experienced, talented speaker on Child Welfare work, and who has appeared before all types of large community organizations in many states; Abram Mendelhall, connected with the famous C. D. Peacock firm of Chicago, who will give a lecture on "The Romance of Precious Stones," making a fascinating story of his subject, as he always does; Major Welch of Chicago, giving a practical, helpful talk on "Efficient Housekeeping."

There will be other programs of equal interest showing the efficient work accomplished by the committee in behalf of the club. The members of this committee who have given so freely of their time and ability are: Mrs. Bertha Bennett Rock, Music; Mrs. John Weiss, Literature; Mrs. David Marks, Art; Mrs. Henry Bills, Child Welfare; Mrs. Louis Franks, Community Service; Mrs. Florence Plummer White, American Home.

The standing committees of the club are also meeting and planning their various activities for the club year. These committees have charge of the general work of the club under the direction of the following chairmen:

Social, Mrs. O. L. Gearhart; Legislation, Mrs. Elizabeth Andrews; House, Mrs. Wm. Stauffer; Philanthropic, Mrs. Charles Herick; Magazine, Mrs. A. L. Kaylor; Auditing, Mrs. Charles Hey.

Charming Social Function at Club Last Evening

Major and Mrs. I. E. McLaren, who have recently arrived in Dixon to make their home from Pasadena, California, were the honored guests at a most delightful social function given last evening at the Dixon Country Club by Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Sickels. Dixon friends are indeed happy to welcome the McLaren family to this city as a place of residence. The attractive rooms at the club were profusely and beautifully decorated with early autumn flowers in various brilliant colorings. Palms and many shaded lights added to the charming effect.

A large company of guests enjoyed the evening and greeted Major and Mrs. McLaren, (formerly Frances Austin). Assisting Dr. and Mrs. Sickels in the receiving line with Major and Mrs. McLaren, was Miss Amy Sickels of DeKalb, Victoria music added to the pleasure of all during the early hours and after 10 o'clock dancing was the chief feature, excellent music being dispensed by the orchestra.

During the evening tempting refreshments were served, Mesdames H. A. Roe, E. E. Shaw, H. U. Bardwell, C. H. Ives, Lloyd Davies, Florence Plummer White, W. A. Schuler, E. B. Raymond, E. D. Alexander and W. C. Durkes poured.

A number of charming young girls assisted in the serving. They were Misses Clara C. Wardwell, Martha Jean Stephenson, Margaret Beach, Helen Miller, Maxine Rosenthal and Lucy Bovey.

Dixonites to Attend Pub. Welfare Meeting

The Illinois Conference of Public Welfare will be held at Quincy, Ill., September 25-28. In the past few years Chambers of Commerce and Business Men's organizations have taken real active part in the public welfare problems of their local communities aside from the usual commercial projects. Many noted persons throughout the State will participate in the discussions of problems. Speakers from several adjacent states will address the conference. Prof. R. E. Hieronymus of the University of Illinois, is president of the organization and will preside at the conference. Miss Edna Zimmerman of Springfield, Ill., is secretary.

The following persons will attend the conference as delegates from Dixon and Lee county: Mrs. George B. Shaw, Carl Straw, chairman of the Board of Supervisors; David Spencer, supervisor; Supt. I. B. Potter, Dr. and Mrs. Warren G. Murray, Mrs. L. N. Deutsch, President of the Federation of Women's Clubs; L. W. Miller, county superintendent of schools; Mrs. H. C. Warner, Attorney and Mrs. George C. Dixon, Mrs. Douglas Harvey.

Requests Women to Listen to Program

A personal letter is being sent today by Mrs. Silas J. Sawm of Chicago official radio hostess of the Hoover presidential campaign, to seventy-five thousand women of the United States, asking them to co-operate with her in her effort to have every woman of the country hear all the radio programs of the Republican campaign.

Her letter makes this appeal: "The vote of American women will be a most important factor in the election of Herbert Hoover. Now is the time for the women to show what they can do with the vote, and what the vote can do for them."

"It is our purpose to enlist a million women who will act as Hoover-Curtis hostesses in their homes, their clubs or hotels, inviting groups of women to radio parties and listening in to Mr. Hoover, Mr. Curtis and other speakers. Monday and Wednesday mornings at 10 o'clock, Central Standard Time, there will be fifteen minute radio programs over the National Broadcasting stations. These talks will be in the nature of 'political gossip' and will be of especial interest to women. Every evening over the Columbia and National chains there will be special programs broadcast by well-known speakers."

"Listen in and watch the newspapers for announcements. 'We are asking you, as one of the prominent women in your community, to serve as a Hoover Hostess, and to secure at least ten other interested women, whose names you will kindly return to us. Help to make an endless chain of Hoover Hostesses throughout the land."

"In this pleasant social way millions of women can be educated in the issues of the campaign and qualifications of the candidates."

Bridge Party at Country Club Was Delightful Affair

One of the largest and most enjoyable bridge parties of the season was held Thursday afternoon at the Dixon Country Club, the hostesses for the happy affair being Mrs. C. A. Buchner, Mrs. William Ware, Mrs. L. G. Adams and Mrs. Frank Kreim.

There were guests for sixteen tables of bridge. The decorations were in lavender and yellow and were most charming, zinnias, cosmos, snap dragon, asters, etc., lending their beauty. Throughout the rooms were bouquets of early autumn flowers. At 4:30 a dainty luncheon was served the dining room table being graced with lavender tapers and yellow and lavender blossoms. The entire afternoon was one of much enjoyment to all present.

DANCE SATURDAY EVENING AT ARMORY

Co. A. I. N. G. members and friends are anticipating a happy evening Saturday, at the dance they will hold in Armory hall. A good attendance is anticipated and desired.

HAVE RETURNED FROM WISCONSIN VISIT

Rev. J. Alex Gilbrook, representing the Russian Missionary Society is to speak next Sunday evening at the Grace Evangelical Church. He has been working in Poland, Aitgalia, Latvia and among the Russian refugees in Paris, France. A cordial invitation is extended to all to hear this man of God.

Makes Girls More Attractive

Wouldn't you, too, like a face powder that will keep shine away—stay on longer—spread smoothly—not clog the pores—and always be so pure and fine? It is made by a new French Process and is called MELO-GLO. It is surely a wonderful Face Powder. Just try MELO-GLO. Campbell's White Cross Drug Store—Adv.

CUBANS FOLLOW NOVEL SCHEDULE FOR EATING

Havana—(AP)—The Cuban is perhaps the world's most erratic eater. His morning meal consists of only a cup of strong coffee taken when he first gets up. At about 10 o'clock he will have more coffee with buttered toast.

At noon he forgets luncheon and at 4 o'clock has still more coffee and a light lunch. His real meal comes at night about 9 o'clock when dinner is a banquet and attended with all pomp and ceremony. There are no set rules of hours and coffee shops remain open day and night.

MAJORITY JURY VERDICTS.
Senator Caraway of Arkansas, member of the senate judiciary committee, has expressed himself as against majority verdicts of juries. He says he has held a high regard for the federal courts as they were organized in early days of the government and he is opposed to tampering with them to any great extent.
Senator Norris of Nebraska is chairman of the judiciary committee and he seems to feel that he is the chosen one to reform the judiciary system of the government. We are inclined to stand with Senator Caraway.
The Arkansas senator noted that the principal objection to requirement of a unanimous verdict of a jury is that one man can determine the verdict or force a disagreement. He added that one man can hold the same key position in rendering of a majority verdict. He has found that in many affairs one man holds the key.
Even the United States senate was organized by dictation of one man in the last session. If Senator Frazier, North Dakota nonpartisan leaguer, had not received what he demanded from republicans he was in position to throw control of the senate into hands of the democrats.

A BIT OF COMMON SENSE.
William J. Bogan, Chicago's superintendent of schools, seems to be a man of considerable common sense.
The stockless fad, so popular among girls these days, has gone over big with Chicago's younger generation, and it occurred to someone to wonder if the school authorities would allow girls to go to school minus their hose. So the question was put to Mr. Bogan.
"If mothers want their girls to go stockless, it's none of my business and none of the teacher's," he replied.
His action, somehow, is extremely refreshing, considering some of the school authorities who have felt themselves called on to regulate the pupils' garb in all its details.

THE INGENIOUS GERMAN.
A bulletin from the National Safety Council remarks that women are often injured while alighting from street cars and buses because many of them hold on with the right hand, and thus dismount facing the rear.
A street car company in Germany, however, with true Teutonic ingenuity, has discovered a means of converting them.
A mirror is placed in the forward side of the car exit. Thus, when a girl or matron prepares to get off, she discovers it and, invariably, pauses for a moment to view herself in it. And this brings her into the proper position to step off the car—holding on with her left hand, and facing the front!
Truly, these Germans are clever people.

William Howard Taft has celebrated his 71st birthday anniversary. Since the Civil war Grover Cleveland was the only other president to reach that age.
Forty-five per cent of the pupils of the country ought to wear glasses, the U. S. Public Health Service asserts, and how many ought to wear stockings?
Wall Street is lining up behind Hoover or Smith this year, making politics a burning issue on the Stock Exchange.
In Chicago most of the butter and egg men seem to have become yeggmen.
Many a cute little cottage these days is covered not only with vines but plastered with mortgages.
They took a pig to a middle western fair in an airplane the other day, but it takes the Board of Trade to give pork a real sky ride.
A New York newspaper prints the headline, "Divorce Suit Shakes Gilda Gray's past." Gilda has a shaky past, at that.
What this country seems to need is a couple of multilateral treaties with the racketeers.
A sure sign that a small town is becoming citified is when the grocery stores start carrying condensed milk.
Coffins can be bought for 65 cents in Paris. Trying to catch a little tourist trade from Scotland?

The Tynmites looked on with awe at all the cats and dogs they saw. "Well, say, if they are bound for school, let's follow them," said one. "It's likely not a distant hike. I wonder what their school is like. If we could watch them at their lessons, it would be real fun."
Said Clowdy, "I agree with you. Perhaps they'll let us come in, too. Although we know a lot, there still is much that we can learn. On us I hope the teacher looks with favor. Then she'll give us books. Oh, look! The cats and dogs have gone. They made a real sharp turn."
"We'll lose them if we do not run." And so the Tynmites, one by one, began to scamper down the road. "Ah, everything's all right," cried Copy as he looked ahead. "And now we'd better walk instead of run, because the cats and dogs are once again in sight."

"My, aren't they cute," cried Scooty loud. "And what a happy little crowd. I guess that they are fond of school, and all the study stufts. And, if that's so, they're very wise, 'cause anyone who really tries is bound to get along real well, and never be a dunce."
They trailed along a few yards more and then they heard the school bell roar. "Ding, dong," it said, and all the cats and dogs ran in the school. They were good pupils, every one, and dally were their lessons done. Not only did they work, but they obeyed the golden rule.
Then, suddenly, wee Carpy cried, "Hey, look! They all have gone inside. We Tynmites are left out here, as lonely as can be. I'll tell you what we all can do. Climb to the windows and peek through. 'Twill do no harm. I'm sure of that. We'll see what we can see."

LEGION MEETING AT SAN ANTONIO TO BE GREATEST
City Making Elaborate Plans for Annual Convention

San Antonio, Texas—San Antonio is ready for the coming of 100,000 veterans of the world war and their wives, mothers, sisters and daughters for the tenth national convention of the American Legion October 8 to 12.
Even the weather man is all lined up and ready to serve the finest brand of convention weather the organization has ever had. Inquiries have come to the bureau from all over the country and an investigation of records at the local weather bureau office going back 50 years shows:
Delightful fall weather holds for the period from October 8 to October 13. Average low temperature runs at 62 degrees, with the average high at 85. There is only the slightest chance for a rain, and that a mere sprinkle. Sunshine prevails during that week of October between 67 and 87 per cent of the time.
Veterans attending the convention, in addition to the pleasant weather and the reunion with their war comrades on the spot where thousands of them trained, will find the greatest entertainment program ever planned for a Legion gathering, according to Philip B. Stapp, general convention director.
A world's championship rodeo, a decision prize fight with leading championship contenders, spectacular battle exercises by the Second Division, a Polles Bergers show with dancing beauties of six nations, dancing every night on Alamo Plaza, an air circus with a thousand planes participating, the great parade of 60,000 men and women, dinners and social functions beyond number are on the program at San Antonio.
Bull fights and Spanish fiestas on the Mexican border are an added attraction. Side trips will be run to Laredo and Nuevo Laredo, Eagle Pass and Pedras Negras and also to King ranch, the lower valley of the Rio Grande, Corpus Christi and the Gulf coast and Brownsville and Matamoros. A 12-day tour will take a large party to Mexico City.
Field Marshal Viscount Allnby, of Great Britain; Major Georges Scapini, of France; General John J. Pershing, Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, Judge Kenesaw M. Landis, William A. Greer, president of the American Federation of Labor, are among the distinguished guests who will be present at San Antonio.

AIR STATION TALK
(By The Associated Press)
KNX, Los Angeles, reports that it has lost several of its prominent radio stars to the "talking movies." Weekly broadcasts of grand opera are to be made each Monday evening by WEAF and stations.
WRUP, Gainesville, Fla., new state owned station in the campus of the University of Florida, is to begin operation about October 1.
Ventrioloquism has been added to the radio entertainment list. WSAI, Cincinnati, presents Boss Herbert and his dummy each Monday evening as another radio fad.
Graham McNamee, who has a ranking as a baritone as well as a radio announcer, is to give 100 recitals during the musical season. His tour is to start at Los Angeles.
All of the homegames on the University of Chicago football schedule will be described on the air by WLS. The series is to start September 29 with a double header.
Two more stations have been added to the Columbia chain WLBW, Oil City, will take all of the programs. While WBBM, Chicago, will be in the hookup on Tuesday and Thursday nights.
Football play by play is to be the subject of a series of chain broadcasts by NBC, starting October 13 and ending Thanksgiving, Nov. 29. Two games are to be given each weekend. Graham McNamee will describe one game and Phillips Carlin the other.
In the far northern villages of Alaska, there are few radio receivers. The lucky set owner always has an audience when conditions are right for good reception, and to notify his neighbors that American stations are coming in with a "bang," he hangs a lantern at his door.

THE RULES
1.—The idea of letter golf is to change one word to another and do it in par, a given number of strokes. Thus to change COW to HEN, in three strokes. COW. HOW. HEW. HEN.
2.—You can change only one letter at a time.
3.—You must have a complete word, of common usage, for each pump. Slang words and abbreviations don't count.
4.—The order of letters cannot be changed.
One solution is printed on page 11.

Charges George Peek With Double Crossing

Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 20—(AP)—Senator Smith W. Brookhart today charged George N. Peek of Moline, Ill., Frank W. Murphy of Wheaton, Minn., and William Hirth of Columbia, Mo., with "double crossing the farmers" in a speech prepared for delivery before the annual convention of the Iowa farmers union.

The three men named by Brookhart have advocated farm support of the Democratic presidential ticket.

"The happiest men in the United States," the senator said in his prepared speech, "were Peek, Murphy and Hirth, when the President's veto was sustained by the Senate and it was too late to pass any other bill. They had defeated any farm relief whatsoever by delaying action until late in the session, and they had kept the issue alive for their Tammany candidate in the November election."

Brookhart had been invited to address the convention by Milo Reno, president of the Iowa Farmers' Union following charges that the farmers had been "double crossed" by opponents of Herbert Hoover.

CUBS team baffled!

In Challenge Flavor Test

not one player detects slightest difference between most expensive spread-for-bread and

MARGARINE

VICTORIES for the athletes who make up Chicago's famous Cubs team depend upon the players being kept well fed and happy. Only the finest of foods are provided them on railroad dining cars and in the hotels where the club is quartered while on tour or at home.

Surely, you would say, if there was any difference between the flavor of Jelke GOOD LUCK Margarine and the most expensive spread-for-bread, these expert judges of fine food would quickly detect it.

Yet when the twenty-seven players were asked to taste both and to tell which was which, not one man was able to distinguish one from the other.

The Challenge Flavor Test made at Wrigley Field, Chicago, just before a 10 to 5 victory over the Phillies. Every member of the team was on hand. Not a single player could tell any difference

If the Cubs cannot find any difference, who can? Can you? Are you sure? Make the test yourself. Let your family decide. See how the Challenge Test points for you the way to happier, better housekeeping through GOOD LUCK economy. Get a package today.

ROCHELLE NEWS

Rochelle—Covers were laid for seventy-five at the first annual father and son banquet of Rochelle Post No. 403, American Legion, held in the Legion Hall, Tuesday evening. Guests included four gold star fathers: George Moore and H. B. Goch-naur, of Rochelle; and Christian (Stukey and W. A. Frisk, of Monroe Center. Prizes were given to the oldest and youngest fathers present: William Lux, Sr., 81, who as a boy of seven saw and heard Lincoln speak at Pekin, Illinois, was the oldest and Edward Lazier, 54, the youngest. The creamed chicken banquet was served by the Ladies Auxiliary.

The address of the evening was made by James Sykora, of Batavia, past Junior Vice Commander of the State of Illinois, who talked on "Father's in Legion Affairs." The speaker stated that it was not so hard for sons to enlist with the bands playing, but it took real courage for fathers and mothers to send their sons into the fray. He sensed the same feeling in all the countries engaged including Germany and Austria where unfortunately the leadership was wrong. Today stated Mr. Sykora the American Legion is potentially the world's greatest power. The speaker stated that we have not yet reached the peak in war veteran insanity cases and that it was the task of the legion to see these men well cared for and that they were given the one in a hundred chance to recover. Cancer cases stated Mr. Sykora are being concentrated at Spedway Hospital and to date the government has not come to the aid of these unfortunates by furnishing radium. The state department has appropriated $3,500.00 from poppy sales and will have to appropriate another $3,500.00. Mr. Sykora is now chairman of the state committee having charge of this work.

The Legion, explained Mr. Sykora, was responsible for securing adjusted compensation and hospitalization and is giving positive leadership. The speaker also spoke of the fine work being done for Legion widows and orphans at Normal, Illinois.

Following the address two reels of motion pictures showing the memorial day parade and a war picture were shown.

INVENTOR OF CHAMPAGNE

IS HONORED IN FRANCE
Epernay, France—(AP)—Dom Perignon, the monk who put the first sparkle in champagne wine 200 years ago, lives in the hearts of his countrymen. Great religious celebrations, under the direction of Monsignor Neveux, auxiliary bishop of Rheims, have been held in honor of the man who put champagne on the gastronomic map.

Wine growers from all the countryside around Rheims and Epernay flocked here for the celebrations, and many a bottle of champagne hoarded in dusty cellars was opened in honor of its inventor. Dom Perignon was the cellarist of the wine-cellar of Hautvillers Abbey.

Adding milk

the rare goodness of Hills Bros
Coffee comes from following the same principle

WHEN the flour browns in the skillet you add the milk or water a little at a time as you stir in order to get a lumpless consistency. By roasting their coffee a few pounds at a time, by their patented, continuous process, Hills Bros. secure a matchless, uniform flavor in every ounce.

Because Hills Bros. discovered and patented this process, you won't find the flavor it creates in any other coffee. Hills Bros. also originated the vacuum pack for coffee. Ask for Hills Bros. ## Watching the Big Scoreboard

BY HERBERT W. BARKER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

There's not much to choose between the two major league pennant races but the fact remains that most of the drama is being enacted in the American League.

The St. Louis Cardinals have made the National League battle more or less of a cut-and-dried proposition by the simple process of matching anything their closest competitors may or may not achieve. If the New York Giants lose the Cardinals manage to do the same thing. If they win, Bill McKechnie's boys see to it that John McGraw doesn't profit in the standings thereby.

But in the American League, Miller Huggins' champion New York Yankees have given their supporters more alternate moments of ecstatic joy and dismal gloom than is good for the constitution.

The Bronx was in deep mourning today, for the Yankees, losing a 12-inning battle to the Chicago White Sox yesterday, saw the Philadelphia Athletics creep to within one game of the lead again.

Meanwhile the National League remained unchanged as the Cardinals and the Giants tangled in a double-bill and emerged with one victory apiece as home runs flew thick and fast at the Polo Grounds.

Pitchers got none of the glory at the Polo Grounds. George Harper, who once patrolled right field for McGraw, took things in his own hands in the first game, crashing out three home runs, and the Cardinals coasted to an 8 to 5 victory.

The boys calmed down a bit in the second game until the eighth inning when the Giants, fighting to overcome a two run lead, sailed into old "Pete" Alexander for five runs, four of them on Hogan's second home run of the day—a mammoth drive into the left field bleachers. That left the score 7 to 4 and there is remained.

Despite the even split, the Giants were heavy losers. They were presented with a wonderful opportunity to tie for the lead and ended exactly where they started—two games out of first place. They meet the Cards again tomorrow.

In the other National League games the Pittsburgh Pirates trounced the Phillies 6 to 4, while the Cincinnati Reds were splitting even in two games with the Boston Braves. The Reds won the first game 7 to 2 but went down in the nightcap, 9 to 5 when the Braves scored eight runs in the first inning.

Urban Faber was the master of the situation at Chicago where the Yankee ship struck a reef and went down with all hands aboard. The veteran spitballer held the champions to eight hits in 12 innings and walked off with a 4 to 3 decision.

Before the Yankees finally had gone down at Chicago, the Athletics, thanks to Jack Quinn, had turned back Detroit, 6 to 1.

The St. Louis Browns clinched third place in the standings by defeating the Boston Red Sox, 5 to 2.

Rockne has described as two of the greatest forward wall men in the country. Magurski, however, is to be given a trial at fullback.

At Illinois Coach Zuppke has seen his squad in scrimmage and found only the ends and centers wanting.

After two hours of stiff scrimmage yesterday the Illini mentor said he was well pleased with the work of the backs.

Fleeting Yost has announced his intention of trimming the Michigan squad from 80 to 60 men tomorrow. He has named a tentative varsity squad, consisting of six ends, 12 linemen and two sets of backs.

The hopes of Purdue have risen with the improvement of "Pest" Welch's knee. Despite his much discussed injury Welch was kicking the ball from 50 to 60 yards yesterday and scampered about the field as though his knee had never been strained.

Springfield—(AP)—Assets of a deceased inmate of the Soldiers and Sailors Home at Quincy should be handled by an appointed administrator until heirs are found, or until the money reverts to the department of public welfare, Attorney General Carlstrom has ruled.

If unclaimed after two years, Carlstrom informed Roy Ide, director of the department of public welfare, the funds may be expended by the department of public welfare.

Springfield—(AP)—Because a motorist desires it is insufficient reason for revocation of his license, in the opinion of Attorney General Carlstrom.

The case arose in LaSalle county where a motorist, apprehended for violation of the motor vehicle act, asked to have his license revoked.

"If the person," Carlstrom suggested, "could be charged with a second offense, and plead guilty, the revocation could be made."

Urbana—(AP)—Effects of consolidation of newspapers will be discussed at the sixty-third annual convention of the Illinois Press Association at the University of Illinois, Oct. 11 to 13.

The question will be viewed from both the daily and weekly standpoint. John H. Harrison, editor of The Danville Commercial News, who has just completed a year of experience with a consolidation and W. M. Harrison, editor of the Oklahoma City Times, who is president of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, will give their views on consolidation from the standpoint of the daily paper.

The weekly paper side of the discussion will be considered by John H. Millar, president of The Home News Company, Chicago, and Bert Hill, Carbondale, president of the Southern Illinois Press Association.

East St. Louis—(AP)—Per capita cost of city government in East St. Louis in 1927 was $22.03, more than twice as much as the cost in 1917, it was reported by the U. S. department of commerce. The 191 cost was $10.29 per capita. The total payment for all government departments was $2,306,845.

Stronghurst—(AP)—Several hundred thousand gallons of tomatoes will be canned at the Stronghurst Canning factory here before the end of the season. The factory, which is the main industry here, is running at full blast, over 100 men and women being employed.

The early tomato crop netted 30,000 pounds. Late varieties being canned now are put up in gallon cans, the first carload having been sent out recently.

Pumpkin canning will start as soon as the tomatoes are completed.

Galesburg—(AP)—Sandlot champions of western Illinois and eastern Iowa is the title that is claimed for this season by Manager P. W. Ballard of the Galesburg Independents. He bases his championship claims on the year's record of 18 victories, with but five defeats. No other semi-pro nine in this section has as good a record, says Mr. Ballard.

If any team disputes his claim Ballard is willing to meet them provided they do not load up with outside players for the game.

An Accurate, Impartial and Complete News Report on the Presidential Campaign

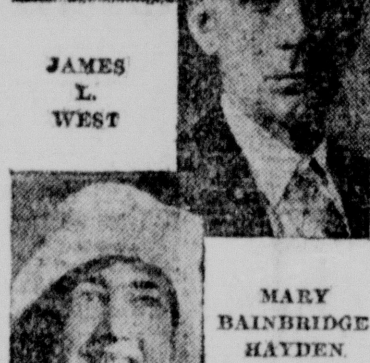

THE Associated Press, of which this paper is a member, through a corps of its best political reporters, is telling the graphic day by day story of the presidential race. The Associated Press supports no candidates, advocates no issues, but reports the facts. Read the instructions Kent Cooper, General Manager, repeated to the staff at the beginning of the campaign.

NOT for years has there been such intense interest in a presidential campaign. Issues have aroused keen debate, the personalities of the candidates have become important factors and millions of women are actively engaged in the race. As never before there is need for true, accurate and impartial reporting in giving voters complete information for their guidance at the polls. Recognizing this fact, The Associated Press has the largest and best staff ever assigned to presidential candidates now with Smith, Hoover, Robinson and Curtis.

Byron Price, for 15 years a correspondent and chief of the Washington staff, has charge of the political report. He has traveled with presidents and candidates for the presidency, covered many of the greatest events in the political history of this country and was in charge of the staff assigned to both national conventions. Price and D. Field Brittle, now are traveling throughout the country and their stories reflect the political situation in each state they visit.

Covering the activities of Herbert Hoover are James L. West, W. B. Ragsdale and Mary Bainbridge Hayden. Paul F. Hauptert, D. Harold Oliver and Martha Dalrymple are with Alfred E. Smith. Francis M. Stephenson is traveling with Senator Charles Curtis and Walter Chamblin is with Senator Joseph T. Robinson. Potentially, there are as many women voters in America as men and the developments and phases of the campaign of particular interest to women are being covered by Miss Hayden and Miss Dalrymple. This marks the first time such regular assignments have been given women reporters.

These special writers are assisted by the staff throughout the country. With a rigid regard for accuracy and impartiality, their stories are written understandingly and interestingly, giving complete, colorful word pictures of what is happening. Follow the campaign each day through this newspaper. If you are not a regular subscriber, call or write the circulation department immediately to enter your subscription.

RELIGIOUS ISSUE THEME OF SMITH'S TALK LAST NIGHT

The Democratic Candidate "Dragged Issue Out Into the Open"

BY D. HAROLD OLIVER
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Oklahoma City, Okla., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Governor Smith wants the American people to decide the November presidential election on the record of the two major parties and their nominees and not on religious grounds.

Before a demonstrative audience that packed this city's Coliseum last night to hear his second speech of his western swing, the Democratic presidential nominee minced no words in an effort to drive home this point. Declaring he had been forced to drag the religious question out into the open because of "an apparent widespread attempt" to distract the American people from the "real issues" by circulation of un-American secret propaganda involving his Catholic faith, and moral habits, the Governor struck a blow at those he believed responsible, challenged his opponents to find a single "scandal" in his long legislative and gubernatorial record and appealed to the people not to be swayed by religious prejudice in casting their ballots.

Butts of His Attack
The Republican National Committee, Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, Assistant Attorney General; The Ku Klux Klan, the Fellowship Forum, a fraternal publication of Washington, D. C., and former Senator Owen of this state, a Democratic bolter—all were mentioned by name in the address, which the Governor said would be his last on the subject of "whispering" tolerance and Tammany.

Now he said he will devote himself to what he considers are the "real issues" such as farm relief, water power, government reorganization and other topics.

Water power probably will be the theme of his third speech of the western tour and today he turned toward Denver, where he will deliver that address tomorrow night.

With the Rev. John Roach Straton, New York Baptist clergyman, and the Rev. Mordecai Ham, Oklahoma City Baptist minister, two of his critics on the platform, the Governor told his audience last night that "one of the meanest things" he had seen in the campaign was a circular sent to him by a Masonic friend of his and purporting to have been sent out "under Catholic auspices to Catholic voters."

Quoting from it, he said it "tells how we have control in New York, stick together and we'll get control of the country." He said it apparently had been sent to him in New York because "so many members of that order are friends of mine and have been voting for me for the last ten years."

He disowned any connection with the circular and said he would take a chance that "nobody inside of the Catholic church has been stupid enough to do a thing like that."

And then, as the crowd cheered, he added: "let me make myself perfectly clear. I do not want any Catholic in the cabinet. I do not want any Catholic for me on the sixth of November because I am a Catholic. If any Catholic in this country believes that the welfare, the well being, the prosperity, the growth, and the expansion of the United States is best conserved and best promoted by the election of Hoover, I want him to vote for Hoover and not for me."

"But on the other hand," he continued, "I have the right to say that any citizen of this country that believes I am promoting Catholicism, that I am capable of steering the ship of state safely through the next four years and then votes the next day for me because of my religion, he is not a real, pure, genuine American."

Replied to Owen
The nominee said that the "cry of Tammany Hall" which former Senator Owen had raised in a letter to Senator Simmons, Democrat, North Carolina, and printed in the Congressional Record, was nothing more nor less than a red herring that is pulled across the trail in order to throw us off the scent."

"It's nothing more nor less than my religion," he declared in challenging the "truth and the honesty" of Owen's purpose.

As to the "whispering" against him, he said at one point: "One scandal in my administration would save the Republican National Committee all the money that I believe they are using to spread through the mails this scurrilous propaganda."

Prior to the Democratic convention the Governor said the Grand Dragon of the Realm of Arkansas wrote to one of the delegates from that state saying he would not vote for Smith "on the ground of upholding American ideals and institutions as established by our forefathers."

"Now, can you think," the nominee asserted, "of any man or any group of men gathered together in what they call the Ku Klux Klan that profess to be 100 per cent American, and forget the great principle that Jefferson stood for, the equality of man, and forget that our forefathers, in their wisdom, foreseeing probably such a sight as we look at today, wrote into the fundamental law of the country that at no time was religion to be regarded as a qualification for office."

After denouncing as "lies," a series of reports he said had reached him, the Governor continued: "Of course it is very fine for the Republican National Committee and the Republican Chairman to disown all this. It is very easy for them to say, 'we disclaim knowledge of it and responsibility for what Mr. Willebrandt said.' She is a deputy Attorney General of the United States. She went before a Methodist Conference of Methodist preachers and said to them: 'There

As Hoover Opened Eastern Campaign

WHEN HERBERT HOOVER began his eastern drive for the presidency with an automobile tour and rally at Newark, N. J., this striking portrait of his campaign face was obtained as he watched the crowds that rallied him. Most famous of the Jerseymen to greet the nominee was Thomas A. Edison. At the left they are shown at the Edison laboratories in West Orange.

ALL THE DEMONSTRATION of an old fashioned political campaign, were present when Herbert Hoover and his party invaded New Jersey. The Republican nominee headed a parade of delegations from every county in the state as, with banners and bands, flags and red fire, they marched to the hall where Hoover was to speak. Here are some of the women marchers in the parade.

Sunday will be the minister's first sermons following his month's vacation, spent near Arcadia, Mich. Bible School at 9:30, under Supt. J. F. Cox. Work of installation of Howell Organ will affect somewhat the appearance of the church's interior, but will not materially hinder the services in any way.

Told of Appointments
Branding as another "lie" a report that while Governor he had appointed only Catholics to office, the Governor, amid cries of "Hann Ham" directed at the Baptist minister on the platform read a long list of his appointments showing a good portion of Protestants and Jews in his cabinet, in the state judiciary and county offices.

Calling attention that the Republican National Committee was listening in on the radio to his speech and that he would not dare say anything that was not "absolutely right," the Governor challenged anyone to prove his attitude toward the public school.

Cries of "pour it on em Al" went up from many in the big hall at frequent intervals during the address. Except for the cheering the nominee was allowed to proceed uninterrupted during his hour on the platform. Numbered among the audience were the Governor and several former Governors of Oklahoma; Senator Thomas, Democrat, Oklahoma, and members of Congress. A Baptist minister delivered the invocation.

are 600,000 of you Methodists in Ohio alone, enough to put this election over. Write to your people."

"There is separation of church and state for you," the nominee asserted, and then asked amid applause: "What would be said around this country if a member of my cabinet, if an attaché of the Democratic administration at Albany, were to appear before a convention of Roman Catholic clerics and make that kind of a statement?"

Rights of Property and Peaceful Assembly Are Guaranteed All Citizens

This is Constitution Week, commemorating the adoption of our supreme law of the land. The accompanying article is the fifth and last of a series explaining some of our guarantees under the Constitution and some interesting facts about it.

BY W. A. McKEARNEY
Prepared for the Cleveland Bar Association

The Constitution provides that private property shall not be taken without due process of law and first making compensation therefor.

Peaceful public assembly and liberty of speech and press are guaranteed but each person is responsible for that right.

Equality under the law is guaranteed everyone by the Constitution, which provides that no state shall deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Personal liberty and the pursuit of happiness are guaranteed, subject only to regulation by law for the common good. This consists in a person's legal and uninterrupted enjoyment of life, body, health and reputation.

Held at 11 o'clock with a sermon by the pastor and special music.

An interesting meeting has been planned for Christian Endeavor at 6:30. The topic "How Missionary Interest Broadens Our Knowledge" will be presented by Miss Olive Boone. The older people will enjoy the discussions in these meetings and are given a special invitation to be present.

PROSPERITY FOR ILLINOIS SEEN BY WM. WILSON

American Furniture Mart Official is Very Optimistic

Jacksonville, Ill., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Prosperous days are in store for Illinois, William H. Wilson, vice-president of the American Furniture Mart, Chicago, told the Jacksonville Rotary club at its weekly meeting today.

"Illinois is sure of prosperity because it is a great furniture state," Wilson explained. "In fact furniture trade winds have started to blow in a steady breeze, following a period of calm. Large furniture factories in this state are working full day and night shifts when three months ago the day shifts were not working full time. Retail furniture stores are reflecting this business back to the factories."

Illinois said Mr. Wilson is outstanding in the furniture industry. In Chicago and the surrounding area, including such great furniture centers as Rockford and Naperville, are 250 factories making articles which qualify strictly as furniture. There are approximately 450 other factories turning out allied articles coming under the classification of household goods. While Illinois produces some of the costliest, and also some of the least expensive furniture made, the state specializes in popular prices, medium grade goods.

"Wholesale value of furniture made in the United States each year is about $561,705,105 and Illinois manufacturers made $72,198,548 worth in 1925 according to the Bureau of the Census in Washington, Wilson said.

"The industry employs 180,895 annually and 19,136 come from our state. "Wages paid persons engaged in the manufacture of furniture each year amount to $225,200,000 and this state pays its furniture workers $27,-848.146. These figures give you some idea of the enormity of the furniture industry. In addition, Illinois leads all states in the credit rating of firms buying furniture at the American Furniture Mart. Combined rating of the firms represented at our style show at the Mart last January was $89,775,000. The rating of Illinois firms was half again as big as that of Ohio, the second state, New York, the third, Pennsylvania, the fourth and triple that of Missouri, the fifth.

Furniture men are confident that business conditions are "looking up," Mr. Wilson said, because in addition to buying more furniture the American public is buying better furniture indicating that the standard of living and appreciation for fine things is increasing.

Mr. Wilson was instrumental in the erection of the American Furniture Mart, largest commercial building in the world, containing 1,330,000 square feet of floor space. It centers an entire industry under one roof, where 764 furniture manufacturers display their furniture samples to retailers from all over the world. In this building 70 per cent of the furniture sold wholesale in the United States is merchandised. When Mr. Wilson conceived the idea of the Mart he took his plan to Lawrence H. Whiting, Chicago financier, who financed the building which has in four years become the international capitol of the furniture industry.

HOOVER PLEASED WITH OPERATION OF HIS MACHINE

The Republican Candidate is Preparing His Next Address

By JAMES L. WEST
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

Washington, Sept. 21.—(AP)—A month and a half before the voters decide whether he is to be the next President of the United States, Herbert Hoover is well satisfied with the political outlook and the functioning of the vast machine he has built up to carry the Republican message to the country.

So the candidate is able to free his mind from some of the matters which have beset him since the convention at Kansas City placed the mantle of nomination upon his shoulders and can begin the preparation of his remaining three addresses in the east and south with a greater mental ease than has been the case in the past.

Friction in the Republican organization has been largely removed—and some friction is ever present in a machine made up of such a vast body of human cogs—and the units are now plunging away right down into the individual voting precincts.

James F. Burke, general counsel of the Republican National Committee, who has been connected with the G. O. P. campaigns for more than a quarter of a century, declares the party machinery is going better than at any time within his recollection. The decentralization scheme, he added, is working out in fine shape.

Hoover now is giving attention to his next address, to be delivered at Elizabethtown, Tennessee, on October 6, and to the itinerary to be arranged for his invasion of the South.

Like that for northern New Jersey early this week, it will be of the whirlwind variety, taking in one or more towns besides Elizabethtown and including, perhaps, one or two impromptu speakings.

BUGGY RIDING IS STILL POPULAR IN DEAUVILLE
Deauville, France.—(AP)—The open victoria, drawn by a horse and driven by a coachman, is still flourishing here.
The residents of Deauville, who do not own their own automobiles consider a horse and coachman far more chic than a car for hire motor. As a result horses are sleek and well fed and carriages have clean, betasseled canopies and seat covers.

NEW YORK CITY IS DEFENDED BY MAYOR WALKER

"I'll Tell the World That It Is Clean" He Declares

BY JAMES P. KIRBY
New York Service Writer

New York City, metropolis of the New World, has less crime in proportion to its size than any other city in the United States. This is the declaration of its famous mayor, the dapper, likeable, James J. Walker.

"This is a clean town," said Mayor Walker, with emphasis. "It's not for me to draw comparisons with other cities. But I know what's doing here and I'll tell the world the town's clean."

The slight, boyish figure of the mayor of New York leaned forward over his desk.

"Sure, you can get a drink in New York," he said. "And in my opinion you'll always be able to, Mrs. Mabel Walker Wilbrandt to the contrary notwithstanding. I may have something to say about that when I get out on the stump, but I'm not ready to discuss it now."

Police on Job

"We've got some crime, but compared with any other big city in the world we're practically in the clean, and the reason is that the police department is on the job."

"Compare our cops with those of any other big city and you'll notice the difference. The New York cops don't loiter around with their caps on the side of their heads, uniforms unbuttoned and cigars in their faces. They're snappy and alert, and that's the reason the crooks lay away from the town."

There is no laxity in the police department. Nobody has any drag. There is no political alliance with gangsters.

"We're concerned with what the other fellow thinks of us, but we are more concerned with what the city itself thinks. I would not attempt to make any comparisons with any other city. But recently I had occasion to go west, and I know what I saw. You can get a drink in any other town as well as New York, and in my judgment you'll always be able to. But if you were to put it up to me on my honor, I could not tell you where you could find in New York a gambling joint or a house of prostitution. There just aren't any."

Works Late

The mayor got up, put on a light gray soft hat, and prepared to leave. The hour was late—7:30 in the evening; and his honor, looking at his watch, grinned.

"They say we're always late," he said. "They don't say much about late here. This is our regular quitting time. But tonight I've got to sit through a session of transit experts, and it'll probably be 10 o'clock before I get any dinner."

And with that Mayor Walker disappeared.

The mayor of a city might, perhaps be expected to defend its record. So I went to Edwin J. Cooley, chief probation officer of the court of general sessions, and a man who has an international reputation in his field. He confirmed what Mayor Walker had said.

About Baumes Laws

"No," the Baumes laws aren't responsible," he said. "The scarcity of crime here is due to the efficiency of the police department, among other things. The New York department is second to none in the world."

"The Baumes laws undoubtedly have driven a lot of the old professional criminals out of the city, but they have had no effect whatever in decreasing the crime committed by the ordinary offender. A city like New York will always have its share of crime, but we are infinitely better off than any other city where the criminal element has influence with the departments of the city government."

"The police department is an efficient agency in the prevention and detection of crime. It functions with an astounding scarcity of graft and corruption."

WHIRLWIND

BY ELEANOR EARLY

THIS HAS HAPPENED
SYBIL THORNE, runaway bride, has deserted her husband in Illinois, and returned to her mother in Boston. Nobody knows of the marriage but Mabel Blake, the girl with whom Sybil took the trip to Cuba, and Mabel's fiancé, JACK MOORE. Sybil pledges them both to secrecy and is contemplating the possibility of a quiet divorce.

RICHARD EUSTIS, the man she married, was charming and a perfect lover, but on their honeymoon he showed his true colors. After enduring two weeks of his constant drinking, Sybil discovers something that makes her believe he has also been unfaithful to her. She leaves him and takes passage with Mabel, for Boston. CRAIG NEWHALL, her old sweetheart, is with the family when they welcome her home. CRAIG asks no questions, but Sybil knows that he realizes something has happened. Very significantly he does not kiss her.

After a pause of a few hours, an word from Richard. Although she hates and despises him, the memory of his burning kisses haunts her. She begins to think of a man named JOHN LAWRENCE, to whom—at 18—she had dedicated all her heart and her life. Lawrence was a soldier who never returned from France. And she, Sybil, who loved her so devotedly a few short months ago. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XXVI
IT WAS difficult for Sybil in the months that stretched ahead. Mrs. Thorne devoted most of her time to quiet and systematic weeping. She sat in her dead husband's chair, his little haddock beneath her feet and the balsam pillow he had liked at her back, and there was something more pitiful about her than there ever had been before.

"I suppose it's a dreadful thing to say," confessed Sybil to Tad, "but, honestly, I think mother gets a positive kick out of being sad. There she is—simply crying herself sick—and enjoying every minute of it."

"Why, Tad, she doesn't want to be happy. She's made up her mind that she's going to be miserable—and that's all there is to it. Anything else she regards as positive heresy. The other night I tried to drag her out to the theater and, my dear, you'd think I'd absolutely insulted her!"

"Poor ma." Tad looked very compassionate. "I wish there was something we could do."

"Get her to go to a psychoanalyst," suggested Valerie. "I'll bet Mr. Crandon would do her a world of good."

"Psychoanalyst!" Tad hooted disdainfully. "Psycho-my grand mother!"

"That's right," sulked Valerie. "Make fun of everything I say. What do you know about psychoanalysis, Tad Thorne? Mr. Crandon's done marvels for lots of people, and I know he could help Mother Thorne, but just because it happened to be my idea—"

*COOKED CUCUMBERS: Slice cucumbers and cook in a small amount of water until tender, removing cover before taking from the fire to allow any liquid to "cook down." When ready to serve add the desired amount of hot cream, and sprinkle over with chopped parsley.

*BAKED GROUND BEETS: Select small tender beets and scrub thoroughly with a vegetable brush. Without peeling cut into small pieces and rub through the food grinder. Place in a dry flat pan to a depth of 2 or 3 inches, and bake tightly covered for 15 or 20 minutes. Remove cover and place under flame until slightly brown on top. Serve with butter.

OUR SENSES
Have you ever considered that all of your consciousness of the external world comes to you through your special senses of seeing, hearing, touching, tasting, smelling, and equilibrium? If at birth a person were deprived of the organs which register these sensations, it is doubtful if he would ever realize that he lived.

Most of our actions are complex reflexes from stimulations that have come to us through these sense organs. For example, if we see an automobile coming at us while we are crossing the street, we dodge or otherwise endeavor to avoid being struck. If we hear a footstep climbing the stair at night, we listen intently, and may even get up to find out who is there. If we smell smoke as of burning wood, we look around to find out whether or not the house is on fire. In fact, you will be able to trace practically every movement or thought that you have to some impulse that has come to you through some of your organs of sense.

We have the eye for detecting variations of light; the ear for detecting noises; the nose for detecting odors; the taste buds in the tongue and mouth for overseeing our food; touch organs in the skin and internal organs for registering heat, touch and internal sensations; we have the semicircular canals in our skulls near the ears, for observing our equilibrium. These sensations are carried by nerves to the brain, where they register and start channels of impulses which may cause us to perform very complicated physical movements.

All of our knowledge of the world has come to us through the sense organs, and it is interesting to trace the development of the first recognition of these senses by an infant.

Probably the first knowledge that a baby has of the external world comes to it through its sense of touch. It becomes conscious of the support of the bed, and of things coming in contact with its arms and legs. Gradually it realizes the difference between being held by the mattress and its mother's arms. The undirected physical movements of the baby's arms and legs bring its attention to clothes, pillows and crib. One of the reflexes that a child seems to be born with is to try to grasp any object placed in its hands.

At first a baby cannot see objects; it is merely conscious of lights and shadows. Gradually its eyes become conscious of large moving objects, and the eyes will follow the min horizontal position, since the muscles for raising and lowering the eyes are not developed until some time after birth.

The newborn child is deaf, but as the air enters the middle ear through the eustachian tube, the hearing becomes developed. Possibly sound at first is simply a disturbing factor. The child becomes able to distinguish between harsh and soothing tones, and the mother's lullaby has been evolved in practically every country of the world as an aid to quieting the child. Hearing does not develop fully for from several hours to several days after birth.

The child as first is not conscious of a sense of hunger. The sucking of milk for the first few weeks seems to be purely a reflex action. Oddly enough, the sense of smell seems to be more acute than the sense of taste in recently born babies.

It is most interesting to watch a baby's enjoyment of experimenting with its new-found senses. If baby is given an object, or if an object is placed within grasping distance, first the infant looks at the object then grasps and tastes it, and may even listen to the object. Many mothers develop gray hairs because baby insists on tasting everything, but this is simply a natural method of the child trying out its new-found senses.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

QUESTION: Mrs. A. G. writes: "I have a most annoying feeling come over me at times. It begins in my head, then seems to make my body stiff. Does not last long, but when it goes away, it leaves me with a very bad headache all the rest of the day. Could you tell me what it is and what to do about it?"

ANSWER: It would be necessary for me to know more about your trouble in order to give you a correct explanation of the cause and cure. I cannot attempt to diagnose cases without personal examinations.

QUESTION: Mrs. J. writes: "I am fond of pancakes and coffee for breakfast. Sometimes I use oatmeal and poached eggs in addition. Would this hurt if I am careful with my other meals? I never see you mention pancakes in your menus. Can you give me a good recipe for them?"

ANSWER: I do not recommend the ordinary pancake because it is exceedingly hard to digest, and a breakfast such as you describe is apt to make you lousy and sleepy the remainder of the day. Even if your digestive system is good the strain will tell in time. A good substitute for pancakes is a thoroughly toasted waffle in which the starch is completely dextrinized. I do not advise much butter or syrup on the waffle.

In addition, one or two eggs may be used, cooked in any manner except frying, and some stewed fruit, preferably prepared without sugar. I do not advise the use of breakfast cereals except in the case of children and those doing heavy work.

QUESTION: Rose writes: "Am thirty-two years old and my hair is just beginning to get curly. Could there be anything wrong with my health or scalp? Am feeling fine, but would just like to know the reason for this change in my hair."

ANSWER: Hair frequently turns curly toward middle age, and this change is no doubt due to the results of a bad fever or to a radical change of diet. I have known many cases where thin, straight hair became curly after a fasting and diet treatment.

QUESTION: W. K. F. writes: "My doctor says my trouble is due to hyperthyroidism, but he also tells me there is nothing to be done to cure it as the cause is not known. I hope you can offer me some suggestions and encouragement about a cure."

ANSWER: The long-sounding name given your trouble is an attempt to describe a condition which actually exists in certain patients where there is an increase in the number of red blood cells over the normal. My researches have shown that such an extra amount of red cells is produced through a definite irritation of the nervous system, including the brain and spinal cord. Such irritation is apparently caused by some simple toxemia, as it can be very easily cured. Out of many cases treated I have never seen one that did not respond very quickly to a fast of a few days. Have your blood count taken at some responsible laboratory, then stop all food for at least five days, except fruit juice and water, and the above another blood count made. You will find the red cells reduced to normal or very close to it. If not quite normal after the five days' fast, continue the fast for a few days more. A correct diet afterwards will prevent any recurrence of the toxemia which is apparently responsible.

QUESTION: Mrs. R. H. asks: "Would eating buckwheat cakes be injurious to a woman of sixty-five who has eczema, acid stomach and constipation?"

ANSWER: If you will watch my health menus published in your paper each week you will see that I never advise buckwheat cakes, and certainly in your case such food should not be used. Send for special articles explaining the cause and cure of the disorders mentioned, enclosing a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

To Be Or Not To Be a Cripple

By SAMUEL KLEINBERG, M. D., New York City

Member, Gorgas Memorial
(This series of articles is prepared under the direction of the Gorgas Memorial which is organized to perpetuate the life work of the late Major-General Gorgas in preventing unnecessary illness. Headquarters of the Gorgas Memorial are at 1331 G Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.)

To be or not to be a cripple is more easily answered today than ever before in the history of the world. Our knowledge and equipment have improved so much that there is hardly any deformity of the body which we cannot at least markedly improve, if not completely cure.

Years ago a man with a tuberculous knee hobbled about indefinitely with the aid of a brace and cane, or crutches. Often he had many foul smelling discharging "sores" which embarrassed him and offended those near him. In the end he probably died of brain fever (tuberculous meningitis). Today surgery enables us to eradicate the disease, and in a year, or sooner, we can send the man back to a useful occupation.

Birth paralysis (Erb's Palsy) of an arm in a child formerly condemned the child to permanent disability, and unsightly deformity, the arm hanging limp at the side and twisted inward. Today, by prompt attention during infancy some children can be cured completely, and the majority may be improved about 75 per cent. Even in older children we can, by operation, obtain remarkable improvement in the appearance and usefulness of the arm.

The older members of the community will recall that in their youth it was not uncommon to see children, and even adults, with extreme degrees of club feet. Oftentimes they walked on their outer "ankle bones". The foot was little more than a knob at the end of the leg, and remained forever conspicuously disfigured. All this can be prevented. If treatment is begun when the child is about two weeks old, there will be little or nothing left of the deformity when the child reaches the age of six months. Even the extreme deformities in neglected children can be changed by either manual moulding or operation, so that the feet are of satisfactory shape. There is no excuse today for any child to go through life with an ugly club-foot deformity.

The same is true of congenital dislocation of the hip. Many children are born with one or both hips out of their sockets. This is easily recognized by a painless limp which appears when the child begins to walk. By manipulation we can cure about 75 per cent of the children, and improve the rest. In a small percentage, when manual pressure is not successful, we replace the hip by an operation.

Similarly, bow legs, flat feet, round shoulders, wry-neck and many other conditions can be readily corrected. In deformities from infantile paralysis, and in curvature of the spine, some may be cured and most patients greatly benefited. But our ability to help and the degree to which we may render assistance depends on how early we are given an opportunity to institute treatment. Do not delay. When you notice a deformity don't seek advice from your neighbor, but go immediately to your family doctor, or to the nearest hospital. If you cannot go to either, write to them for advice.

CHINA WILL DISCOURAGE YOUNG OPIUM ADDICTS
Peking—(AP)—Opium smokers' stamps are to be issued here. All smokers as well as opium establishments are being registered and must pay a special fee for privileges. Licenses and revenue stamps have been issued by Far T. Sung, director of the opium prohibition bureau of Hoped, which gives individuals permission to smoke without fear of arrest. The idea is to control the habit in every way possible and discourage the use of the drug.

If a novice appears at the prohibition bureau he is given a lecture on the follies of the habit, and encouraged to give a little more thought to the matter before joining the ranks of the day dreamers.
